QUIK POCKET

Wenger bags are famous for their smart practical details and features. Take the Quik Pocket. It's always easy to locate and open, and you'll quickly find what you need. Vital items such as car keys, smartphone or passport are always available and within close reach when you need them.

PREMIUM MATERIALS

Swiss craftsmanship is synonymous with outstanding quality, reliability and innovation. The stylish Wenger Notebook Case collection is proof of this. The long-lasting luxury cases offer plenty of protection against wear and tear, plus many useful features and storage options for all your mobile accessories.

TRIPLE LAYER PROTECTION

Protect your valuable notebook and its precious data the best way you possibly can. Most Wenger bags are equipped with Triple Layer Protection, which includes a highly effective three layer padded area to better protect the notebook if bumped or dropped. Ultimately, Triple Layer Protection offers users extra peace of mind.

Wenger has been at the forefront of innovation for over a century. The company has been a vanguard of knife technology since 1908 when it began pioneering the development of army knives as precision multi-tools for the Swiss Army. The knives' exclusive patented features reflect Wenger's impressive track record for developing new ideas. Over the past 100 years, Wenger has continued to innovate. This is best exemplified by the company's watches as well as travel, outdoor and business gear, all of which have been designed and crafted with the same inspiration and dedication that was devoted to the Swiss Army knife.

Wenger's Notebook Case collection removes any worries business professionals may have about safely transporting their notebook to work. Every stylish Notebook Backpack, Notebook Case, Wheeled Notebook Case, Messenger Bag and Notebook/Tablet Sleeve has its own unique Wenger design and shares the same luxurious quality and practicality that makes a Wenger Case vital whether your commute involves globetrotting, city hopping or travelling to work.

Every product with Wenger's distinctive Swiss cross logo demonstrates smart eye catching designs, premium materials and unbeatable quality. Those executives seeking inspiration and adventure at work will not be disappointed.
